Kramer said that the order had resulted in accomplishing to a considerable extent the purpose for which it had been intended. It had decreased the stock of liquors in the hands of druggists and others who were authorized to distribute it by the permit system, he said.

"Son," Says King, 'Cut College Life And Learn Trade."

Paris, Oct. 8.—So as to be prepared for "certain possible events," King Victor Emmanuel of Italy has cancelled the aesthetic college education of his son and has ordered him to learn a useful trade.

Communists in Italy hail this as a sign that the King realizes that should the present revolutionary tendencies succeed he will forced to abdicate and go into exile, in which case he does not intend that his son shall share the fate of the younger Hapsburgs, who are starving in Switzerland for lack of knowing any trade by which they may earn a living.

KILL MAN, HIDE BODY IN BRUSH

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 8.—With two bullet wounds in his right side, the body of Walter Pattengail, 65 years old, of Annapolis road, Westport, was found early this morning in the bushes in a secluded spot across the roadway from Mount Auburn Cemetery, Westport.

The aged man had been robbed of all valuables. His right hand was tightly clutching a leather watch fob.

The roadway and bushes nearby give evidence of a struggle, and the police are working on the theory that he was held up and murdered when he showed fight.

The body was found at 7.30 a. m. by Edward Murphy, a printer, who was on his way to work. Until the body was moved and blood began flowing from the wounds, it was believed Pattengail had died of heart failure.

The police made a careful search of the neighborhood, but no pistol was found.

POPULATION OF U. S. NOW 105,683,108

Figures May Reach Total of 118,000,000 With Citizens Abroad and Possessions

TREND IS TO CITIES

Increase in Ten Years is 13,710,842 or 14.9 Per Cent Since 1910.—Fifty One Per Cent in Cities

The 1920 population of continental United States was announced yesterday by the census bureau as 105,-683,108. This was an increase of 13,710,842, or 14.9 per cent, since 1910.

The total given does not include the population of outlying possessions, which will be announced as soon as the figures for Alaska and the military and naval services abroad are tabulated. It is estimated, however, that these possessions have 12,250,000 inhabitants, so that the total number of people living under the American flag is, in round numbers, 118,000,000.

Director Rogers, in making the announcement, said that while the figures were preliminary and subject to correction the final official population, as transmitted to Congress in December for apportionment purposes, was not likely to be greatly different, although it might be slightly larger through the addition of population for small sections of the territory claimed not to have been properly canvassed by the census enumerators in January and which are now being investigated.

"The population of the United States, as announced yesterday," said Mr. Rogers, "is 105,683,108, as compared with a total in 1910 of 91,-972, 286 and in 1900 of 75,994,575. This is an increase since 1910 of 13,-710,842, or 14.9 per cent, as compared with an increase from 1900 to 1910 of 15,977,691, or 21 per cent.

"The large falling off in the rate of growth for the country as a whole as shown by these figures, is due mainly to an almost complete cessation of immigration for more than five years preceding the taking of the census in January last and in some degree also to an epidemic of influenza and to the casualties resulting from the world war.

"The results of the census of population in 1920 at first glance may seem somewhat disappointing and open to question possibly, but the substantial accuracy of the enumeration in January is fully borne out by comparison with estimates based upon the probable excess of births over deaths throughout the decade and the excess of immigration over emigration.

"From all available data it may be roughly estimated that the annual excess of births over deaths throughout the United States is approximately 10.5 per cent during the decade. Thus the nearly 92,000,000 persons present in the United States in 1910 might be expected to increase to about 101,700,000 in 1920.

"In addition, the excess of immigration over emigration during the decade was approximately 3,733,000. Since the bulk of these foreign-born persons came to the country during the first four years of the decade it may be roughly estimated that the increase due to excess of births over deaths in their families was about 10 per cent.

"Thus the population of the country may be assumed to have been augmented by about 4,100,000 during the decade through excess of immigration over emigration. The two estimates taken together would indicate, therefore, a probable population of 105,800,000, or only a small fraction of 1 per cent more than the total shown by the returns of the fourteenth census.

"The figures of the present census also show that the trend of population from this country to the city has become greatly accentuated since 1910 and that, for the first time in the country's history, more than half the entire population is now living in urban territory as defined by the census bureau. That is to say, of the 105,683,108 persons enumerated in the fourteenth census, preliminary tabulations show that 54,816,209 or 51.9 per cent, are living in incorporated places of 2,500 inhabitants or

GAIN 1294 MEMBERS

Strides Made Under Direction of Grand Chancellor E. R. Boyer During Past Year

The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias, which has been in session this week in Staunton, Va., adjourned last night to meet in Alexandria October, 1921.

Past Grand Chancellor E. R. Boyer and Past Chancellor S. Elmer Norris and Clarence W. Rose, who attended the convention from Alexandria, have returned.

The local delegates reported it was one of the most successful and well attended conventions ever held.

During the term of Grand Chancellor Boyer, one year from October, 1919, to October 1920, there was an increase in membership of 1294, the greatest gain in one year in the history of the order.

Mr. Boyer was congratulated on the successful strides made by the order during the past year.

A feature of the convention was a musical entertainment staged at the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institute. Grand Chancellor Boyer made an able address in which he took occassion to thank the members of the faculty and students on behalf of the grand lodge.

During the progress of the convention the annual meeting of the Pythian Sisters also was held and they will meet in Alexandria next year.

Engineer Ends Life

Earl A. Moore, Former Resident Shoots Self.

Charlottesville, Va., Oct. 8.— Worried by a prolonged illness and obsessed with the fear that he would never be able to work again, Earl A. Moore, a young engineer on the Southern Railway, ended his life Wednesday night by firing a bullet into his brain.

Attracted by a pistol shot about 11 o'clock Wednesday night, a passer by found the body of the unfortunate young man lying under a shed at the plant of the King Lumber Company. In his right hand was tightly clutched a small revolver, with one chamber empty. The bullet had entered the right temple and pierced the brain. Death must have been instantaneous.

Moore was born near Broadway, Rockingham County, and had been in the railroad service for the past twelve years. For four years he made his home in this city, where he purchased a residence on Anderson street. Last spring he disposed of his property here and moved to Alexandria. He had been in ill health for some time, and on August 1st., made his last run. About two weeks ago he returned to Charlottesville to undergo treatment at the University Hospital. Last week he went to Amissville, Va., to visit his wife's parents. From there he went to Washington and Alexandria, returning to Charlottesville with his wife Wednesday night.

Mr. Moore was thirty-four years of age. He married Miss Maude Walker, of Amissville, Rappahannock County, who survives. There are no children. He also leaves two brothers and a half sister—Kirby Moore, of Washington, D. C., Frank Moore and Mrs. John Fravel, of Harrisonburg.

The body was taken today to Amissville, where the funeral and interment will take place.

Final Show Tonight

Oh, Oh, Cindy Scores Another Big Hit Last Night.

"Oh, Oh, Cindy" scored another success last night, at the Opera House, to a large and appreciative audience, and the rounds of applause that greeted these young Alexandrians encouraged them to their best efforts, promising another splendid performance tonight, when they should play to standing room only, as the opportunity to witness such a performance is too rarely afforded considering the evident talent in the city.

Special mention has been made of the marked dramatic ability displayed by Miss Louise Griffith, as "Cindy," Miss Evelyn Howard, as "Le Crier," and A. D. Rhodes as "Terance O'Holligan."

Miss Hilda Schneider, as "Blanche Blondina" scored a hit, as did also her three devoted swains, "The Three Bears," played by Leslie Devers' H. V. Quigley and Briely Clem.

Miss Abbie Hoxton as "Lilly White," Cindy's black maid, was a distinct hit, and her supporting partners in black face were Jack Dinwiddie as "Friday," and Everett James, as "Saturday". It is impossible to really do justice to the excellent acting and dancing of this trio, and their make-up was perfect. Their appearance called forth round upon round of applause.

The parts of "Stephen Craig" played by Allan Roberts, "Ferdinand Gotrox," Edward Oliver, and Robinson Crusoe, Dr. John T. Ashton, were hard parts to portray, for fear of over-acting, but they were placed in capable hands, and the work of these three showed a clear understanding of their lines, and good stage presence at all times.

"The Big Four," the principal show girls, were Miss Gladys Rodgers, Miss Ruth Le Hew, Miss Susie Murphy and Miss Rosa Murphy, and their acting, singing and dancing was unusual in girls of so little stage experience, they were indeed excellent. In the chorus groups it is hard to mention any one, as each stood out so prominently in their particular line.

The harlequin dances were most effective in their bewitching costumes and their dancing was beautiful.

The little "Fireflies and Gnomes were one of the chief attractions of the evening, while the "Cannibals" ran them a close second in popularity with the audience.

The work of the "Drum Corps" was good, and they made a splendid showing in their effective costumes.

The aviation chorus made a splendid showing, a number of the same young ladies being in the show and chorus girls, who gave a most realistic performance of a chorus rehearsal.

In the grand finale, which was most spectacular, solos were sung by Miss Nina Baker Fulton and Miss Mary Hunt Roberts, and the various character groups were of an unusually high order. Tonight will be the final performance, and all who have failed to see this musical comedy should attend, for Alexandria is seldom so fortunate as to witness such a high class show.

U. S. PAY TO ROADS ORDERED HELD UP

Treasury Official Rules Against Grants Until Final Accounting

$600,000,000 INVOLVED

Comptroller Warwick Rules "Piecemeal" Settlements for Losses Would Entail Never Ending Revision"

Washington, Oct. 8.—Treasury payments to railroads under guaranty provisions of the Transportation act will be held up under a ruling today by Comptroller of the Treasury Warwick until final accounting of losses sustained during the guaranty period is made. Officials estimated that approximately $600,000,000 was involved.

Carriers already have received about $130,000,000 under the guaranty provisions paid in the form of advances against estimated deficits incurred prior to September 1, when the guaranty expired. Mr. Warwick's decision held that failure of any road to have obtained adequate advances was no fault of the Treasury, and, therefore, that Secretary Houston was not compelled to make further payments "piecemeal."

"I think the law contemplated the adjudication and final settlement of these claims as soon as practicable after the expirstion of the guaranty period," the decision stated. "The needs of certain carriers for funds is recognized, but this office may not construe the law to authorize the payment of public money except in such amounts and at such times as Congress has authorized by law, no matter how urgent the needs of claimants."

To permit payments "piecemeal" would entail "a never-ending revision" of the carriers' accounts by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Comptroller said, adding that it must be assumed that, since the law made provisions for protecting the Government where advances were made against estimated deficits prior to September 1, it would have carried a similar provision for the Government's protection against overpayment had it been intended to make payments similar to advances after the guaranty period ended.

The decision was rendered on applications by the Grand Trunk Western Railway and the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee Railroad. The Interstate Commerce Commission had certified the application of the former line for $500,000 and the latter for $250,000 but added that the certification was made subject to the provision that further claims could be presented and paid under the guaranty sections of the railroad law.

Such certification made it apparent Mr. Warwick ruled, that the amount sought was not the amount which finally would be required to make good the guaranty of earnings and could be regarded in no other light than that of a partial payment not authorized by law.

Doesn't Mind Cash But Loss of Shirts

New York, Oct. 8.—Where are my shoes? Where are my shirts? And where in thunder is my $125 overcoat?

The overcoat was the last straw. Edward P. Morse, shipbuilder, lost patience. He had been forced to ask these questions daily and nightly for almost a year. Shirts and shoes and suits of clothes had been disappearing.

He hired a private detective and now the maid who has been in his employ for the past six years is under arrest. She was held on a charge of grand larceny.

The loss of wearing material and other things over the six year period amounted to between $5,000 and $10,-000. Mr. Morse said he did not mind the pecuniary loss so much as the annoyance the absence of his favorite shirts caused him.

THE CHURCHES AND THE WAR.

President Wilson has received a chaplain's war medal from the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America as "an expression of appreciation by the churches and to the world through his leadership in winning the world war, and bringing to the world the ideals embodied in the League of Nations."

His "leadership in winning the world war" is recognized by the Federal Council. No Republican politician or newspaper recognizes it. So far the only one gathers from the speeches of Mr. Harding and the lesser Republican lights, who never mention the war if they can help it, several million American heroes—the Republican party wants their votes—went over to Europe of their own accord and spontaneously cooperated with the French and British, and the only connection of the President and his Cabinet and a Democratic Congress and the whole fabric of the Government was to squander the public revenues and obstruct American soldiers and sailors in getting at the enemy. But the Federal Council representing a large part of the Christian men and women in the country, recognizes Mr. Wilson's "leadership" in winning the world war."

But what is of vastly more importance, the Federal Council recognizes his leadership in "Bringing to the world the ideals embodied in the League of Nations." The Republican party as a whole, in its platform and in the speeches and actions of its Presidential candidate and all its leading spokesmen, regards the League of Nations with detestation, as a trap by entering which we shall surrender our national sovereignty—and which will keep American soldiers fighting in all quarters of the globe.

We observe a marked disparity between the Republican party and the Federal Council of Churches.

The Other Side of Advertising.

Advertising is not a convenient method of getting rid of otherwise unsalable goods. Those who so look upon it ultimately pronounce it a failure, and discourage others from its use for legitimate purposes.

Advertising is a method of opening the doors of opportunity to the consumer. Those who so look upon it grow and prosper.

Remember that a good bargain can never be one-sided. The merchant's business is to get the attention of those who will find satisfaction as well as profit in dealing with him.

The readers of the Gazette advertising are not looking for means of getting rid of their money, but of exchanging it for something of greater service to them.

If you have an article which answers that description, it will pay you to let the Gazette folks know about it.

CONVICT KILLED IN ESCAPING.

Sentry's Shotgun Explodes During Scuffle in Virginia Quarry.

Charlottesville, Va., Oct. 8.—Just as the men were knocking off for the day yesterday at the quarry of the State lime grinding plant in Augusta County five negro convicts made a murderous assault on one of the guards. In the struggle that ensued Homer Blyes, a long termer was shot through the stomach and almost instantly killed and the other four made their escape.

The guard attacked was Jasper N Kincaid. While his attention was momentarily attracted by one of the men another seized the shotgun he held and tried to wrench it from his hands. Four other convicts hastened to the aid of the attacker. The gun was discharged and Blyes fell mortally wounded. After securing the gun the remaining four men fled.

The escaped convicts are Robert Coleman, James Keller, William Mathews and Robert Cohen. The men were serving terms of from ten to eighteen years.

U. C. V. TO REMOVE BODY OF MRS DAVIS TO RICHMOND

Houston, Texas, Oct. 8.—Among the resolutions adopted here yesterday afternoon at the final session of the United Confederate Veterans' annual reunion, provided for the appointment of a committee to take steps looking into the removal of the body of Mrs. Jefferson Davis from Batou Sara, La., to Richmond, Va., where the body of her husband, the President of the Confederacy, lies buried.

The veterans re-elected by acclamation all of their principal officers completed their sessions and turned their attention to the parade today the event for which many of them made the trip of hundreds of miles from their homes to Houston.

The officers re-elected, headed by General K. M. VanZandt, of Fort Worth, Texas, commander-in-chief, were chosen without opposition. They include General Julian S. Carr, of [illegible] commander of the department, and General Alvin B. Ware, Batesville, Miss., commander of the department of the army of Tennessee, General VanZandt also announced the reappointment of General A. B. Booth, of New Orleans, as adjutant and chief of staff.

Selection of next year's reunion city was left to a committee headed by the commander-in-chief, and including in its membership all the department and divisional commanders. This committee, it was stated, will receive invitations and announce its decision probably in several months.

The Sons of Confederate Veterans, the Confederated Southern Memorial Association, and the Forest Cavalry Corps also elected officers today.

MINERS' DEMAND MET COAL STRIKE IS OVER

Pittston, Pa., Oct. 8.—Eight thousand miners, employed by the Pennsylvania Coal Company and the Hillside Coal Company, will return to work tomorrow morning after a strike which began July 16 and which has tied up completely the collieries of the two companies since then.

James A. Joyce, Pittston business man and head of the Chamber of Commerce committee, working to settle the prolonged strike, was the chief figure in ending the walkout.

Unable to bring Capt. W. A. Day, president of the coal companies, and the miners together, Mr. Joyce went to New York yesterday, sought out the principal stockholder of the Pennsylvania Coal Company, and reached an agreement to abolish the individual contractor system and to recognize the miners' grievance committee.

Returning home today, Mr. Joyce held a conference with Captain Day and he formally agreed to the miners' demands.

A meeting of the miners' delegates followed, at which it was voted unanimously to return tomorrow.

PLATFORM FALLS COX UNHURT

Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 8.—Governor Cox apparently leads a charmed life. He had another narrow escape here yesterday when the stand on which he was speaking collapsed. Several were shaken up, but no one was seriously injured.

DAYLIGHT SAVING LEADS TO SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Daylight-saving time figured as a provocation for married troubles in court today. Frank Shaw swore his wife, Bettie, refused to recognize the new time and get up. He had to do without breakfast.

Then he left home and lived where he could get something to eat in the morning. He asked for divorce.

IMPERATOR'S LAST VOYAGE

New York, Oct. 8.—The former German passenger liner Imperator, next to the Leviathan the largest ship afloat, and for the past year running in the service of the Cunard Line, left today on what may be her last voyage in that service. The Imperator was taken over by the interallied mari time council at Hamburg following the signing of the armistice. With other ships she was assigned to the British Ministry of Shipping and then loaned to the United States to transport home American troops. When this work was completed she was allocated by Great Britain to the Cunard Line for seven round trip voyages.

Officials here of the Cunard Line said today that the arrival of the Imperator in England on her present trip will end the term of allocation.

Another former German vessel turned over to the Cunard Line at the same time as the Imperator is the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria. This ship will leave here Saturday on the last leg of her final trip under the existing contract. The future of both ships is unknown here.

SHOOTS SON BY MISTAKE.

Chester, Pa., Oct. 8.—Edwin T. Seibert, 14 years old, of Carpenter, Del., is in the Chester Hospital with a bullet wound in the abdomen and his condition is considered serious. The boy was accidentally shot by his mother in mistake for a burglar, according to his father, E. T. Seibert, who is freight chief in this city for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

The boy and his father had attended a church service last night and when they returned home the boy unlocked the door. He called to his mother, who had retired, and told her he believed there was an intruder on the first floor. He hurried to get a revolver and Mrs. Seibert did likewise, and it was in the excitement that followed that the boy was shot. No trace of any burglar could be found and Seibert brought his son to the hospital in the family car. The mother collapsed, but her condition has since improved.

Wilson To Let Voters Pass on His Veracity.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 7.—President Wilson yesterday telegraphed Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri, that he was content to let the voters of Missouri decide which of them was telling the truth. The telegram referred to Senator Spencer's charges that the President had promised military aid to Rumania and Servia, which the President Tuesday said was "false."

The telegram, which was made public at the White House without comment or explanation, follows:

"I am perfectly content to leave it to the voters of Missouri to determine who of us is telling the truth."

Replying to the President's letter of Tuesday, Senator Spencer in a letter quoted, in support if his original statement, from what he said was the stenographic notes of the eighth plenary session of the peace conference. He asked the President to inform him whether the statement as attributed to him in the stenographic notes taken at Paris was made. The President's telegram yesterday apparently was in reply to that letter.

W. H. MORSE, of Seattle, Wash., who says he can now turn out as much work as he could thirty years ago, in spite of his age. Gives Tanlac credit for his splendid health.

"I am in my eighty-fifth year, but since taking Tanlac I am as hale and hearty as I ever was and can do as much work as I could thirty years ago," declared W. H. Morse, of 52 Blane St., Seattle, Wash. Although in his eighty-fifth year, Mr. Morse is still daily to be found engaged in hard work down at the Ames Shipyard and is remarkably well preserved for his years.

"Last spring I had an attack of the flu that left me in a very badly run-down condition and so weak that I could hardly get around. For a long while I had a very bad cold that I couldn't shake off and my bronchial tubes were so choked up that I was coughing all the time. I had no appetite and in fact ate so little that I was steadily loosing weight. I couldn't sleep at nights and became very much worried about my condition, because I couldn't find anything to straighten me up and restore my lost strength.

"I saw by the papers what fine work Tanlac was doing for other folks, so I got some for myself. It did me good right from the start, for in a very short while my cough left me, and I was eating fine and sure did enjoy every mouthful. I slept better at nights and was soon feeling much better in every way. I have gained seven pounds in weight and am so much stronger that I can turn out about as much work as most any other man, in spite of my years. Tanlac certainly must be a great medicine to put me on my feet like it has, and I'm glad of the chance to tell everybody about it."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, jr., and Gibson's Drug Store.

Leopard Cannot Change Spots

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Tells the Treachery of Calomel.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynimite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel billious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild-cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

For Indigestion

more, and 50,866,899 or 48.1 per cent, in rural territory. At the census of 1910 the corresponding percentages were 46.3 and 53.7, respectively, showing a loss of 5.6 per cent in the proportion for the population living in rural territory.

This shows more clearly the change in the proportion of the population living in rural territory now as compared with ten years ago the rural population can be divided into two classes, namely, 9,864, 196 or 9.3 per cent of the total population living in incorporated places of less than 2,500 inhabitants, and 41,002,708 or 8.8 per cent of the total population living in what may be called purely country districts."

This situation was clearly reflected in the figures as to farms in the country, which also were made public yesterday. These placed the total farms at 6,459,998, an increase of only 98,496, or 1.5 per cent in ten years, as against an increase of 624,130, or 10.9 per cent during the decade ended in 1910.

"The percentage of income shown for the several States," the statement says, "vary greatly, due in part to the causes which have been noted as affecting the increase of population of the country as a whole, but also in part to the abnormal internal movement of population required to meet the excessive demands of the war work in certain sections. For three States—Mississippi, Nevada and Vermont—there have been small decreases in population, the largest decrease being for Nevada, 5.5 per cent."

Revised figures for a number of cities and counties are yet to be announced, but the main work of the 1920 census is completed after nine h:rodn?vbsf-ls,tf fog fgogf foggf f months of labor.

ASK JUSTICE FOR JAPAN

Americans in Orient Urge Discretion in California Issue.

Toyko, Oct. 7.—The American Associations of Tokyo and Yokohoma have cabled the following joint resolution to Bainbridge Colby, the American Secretary of State:

"We, the American Associations of Yokohoma and Tokyo, in a conference definitely representing all American interests in Japan, business, missionary and professional, have resolved to acquaint our countrymen with the intense feeling aroused throughout Japan by the present action in California threatening the destruction of the traditional friendship and a future estrangement between the two peoples. We earnestly beg our countrymen to act with sober deliberation and patience, trusting the respective Governments to find a solution satisfactory and effective without affronting Japan nor sacrificing the principles of equity on either hand."

The executive committee of the American-Japan Society has requested two if its American members, E. W. Frazar and John Richard Geary, general manager of the General Electric Company in Japan, to go to America and assist, if possible, in the improvement of Japanese-American relations.

Nab Moonshiners Because Bulldog Goes Off to Fight.

Winchester, Va., Oct. 7.—Floyd Dunlop and Henry Shirely wouldn't have been caught in the act of distilling liquor by Sheriff Fannett had their bulldogs remained on outpost duty, instead of attacking another dog in the neighborhood, it developed at the former's trial in Ciscuit Court Tuesday afternoon.

Dunlop said the dog had been trained to watch the 'camp", but on this occasion he forgot his tricks.

Dunlop was fined $50 and given thirty days. Shirely will be tried later.

COX GOES TO KENTUCKY ON NEW SPEAKING TOUR

Columbus, O., Oct. 7.—After spending yesterday at the Executive Office attending to State matters and conferring with Democratic State political leaders; Governor Cox left last night for Kentucky, where today he will begin his second extensive speaking campaign. His first speech today will be at Elizabethtown, and he will conclude the day with a night address at Memphis, Tenn.

The Governor was met here by John son Camden, National Committeeman for Kentucky, and Congressman Campbell Cantrill, head of the Organization Bureau o the National Committee, who will accompany him through Kentucky.

Governor Cox today indorsed a program for betterment of employees of the postal service as presented by heads of their various organizations.

The program presented was for adequate postal facilities, just and equitable compensation, right to confer with Post Office officials through representatives of their own organizations and a court of review to which appeal may be taken in cases of demotion or dismissal.

In the delegation which presented the program to the Governor were Gilbert E. Hyatt, president of the National Federation of Post Office Clerks; Edward J. Gauner, president of the National Association of Letter Carriers; W. Collins, secretary of the Railway Mail Association, all of Washington, and John T. Mulgavin, of Cincinnati. They stated after the conference that the Governor's position on their program was "eminently satisfactory."

The Governor also received a delegation of Girl Scouts from Cincinnati, who obtained his promise to issue a proclamation naming the week of November 6 as Girl Scout Week.

Tot Charms Couple and Wins Home

New York, Oct. 7.—Surrogate Foley yesterday consented to the adoption by Attorney and Mrs. William Van Dyke, of Detroit, of Caroline Travers, 10, ward of the Children's Society of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Dyke, prominent in Detroit society, spent several days searching New York institutions for a child to adopt, having none of their own. Late yesterday they chanced to see Caroline and thought her so pretty and well bred that they decided to effect a legal adoption.

Van Dyke said they would change the child's name to Elizabeth Ann Van Dyke.

COULDN'T APPRECIATE SHIMMY

So Sophie Tucker, Jazz Artist Seeks To Quit Hubby.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Sophie Tucker, "Queen of Jazz," says her husband, Frank C. Westphal, did not appreciate her talent for shimmy and song, so yesterday she filed suit for divorce in the Superior Court.

The bill sets forth that they were married in October, 1917, and lived together until April 26, 1918, at which time, according to her complaint, he deserted her.

So Sophie sues for divorce, and, as she remarks in one of her latest basso profundo recitative songs:

"Is it anybody's business if I do?"

Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty of your skin.

MOVIES

RICHMOND TONIGHT.

"Harriet and the Piper," Anita Stewart's latest First National picture, which will be screened at the Richmond Theatre, commencing tonight is from Kathleen Norris' story of the same name. The story, which has a Greenwich Village setting, ran serially in the Pictorial Review, and has since been published in book form. Supporting Miss Stewart is an all-star cast, including Ward Crane, Charles Richman, Irving Cummings, Bryon Munson, Myrtle Stedman, Margaret Landis, Barbara La Marr Deeley and Loyola O'Connor. Bertram Bracken directed the production.

Those who have already seen "Harriet and the Piper," both at the coast and in New York, are unanimous in declaring it the best film vehicle in which Miss Stewart has yet appeared, not excepting "In Old Kentucky," which was one of the most successful of last season's productions.

INGOMAR—"The City of Masks.

Robert Warwick will be seen at the Ingomar Theatre tonight in "The City of Masks," the screen version of a popular novel by George Barr McCutcheon.

The story deals with a romantic group of foreign noblemen and ladies who are working in New York in humble occupations and concealing their identities. Once a week they meet at the home of one of their number and become their real selves for the evening. Mr. Warwick is a nobleman-chauffeur, in love with another member of the camouflaged group.

Mr. Warwick is supported by a good cast, including Lois Wilson as leading woman, Theodore Kosloff, and J. M. Dumont. Thomas Heffron directed the picture, which is a Paramount Artcraft, and it was adopted for the screen by Walter Woods.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 7.—Finding the weather a bit too wintry for motoring, President Wilson went driving yesterday in the White House victoria, a type of vehicle seldom seen nowadays in Washington. Mrs. Wilson accompanied the President, and Secret Service men followed in an automobile.
